Jim and Gwenn Dewey's 10-year-old son Dickie, 250 West Highland, has been sponsored in the Soap Box Derby by Bill Underwood, 770 Canyon Crest Underwood, a man who has influence when it comes to getting wheels, axles and other materials necessary in the building of "Derby" entries, also builds boats.

When Dickie filled out an application as an entrant, he listed his sponsor's occupation after the name: "William Underwood, Boats."

No matter how many times Underwood has tried to correct the situation, he still receives letters and telephone calls addressed to "Mr. William U. Boats." After he was introduced at recent Soap Box Derby meeting in Pasadena as "our good Sierra Madre friend, Mr. Boats," he decided to accept the whole thing, philosophically.

Says he's even beginning to like the name!

Mrs. Florence Nielsen, administrative secretary at City School, may be just one of several candidates in the Community Fair Queen Contest, but to the kids at school she is a "Queen Every Day."

Since her candidacy, the fourth graders from Mrs. Vivian Olson's class have been bringing her a daily paper crown gaily crumpled and adorned with flowers. First day, the crown was one of orchids supplied by Judith Thompson.

Since then Judith Haymaker and Joanne Bush of Joseph Molante's sixth grade class, not to be outdone, have brought Mrs. Nielsen a carnation corsage on a pillow of royal purple.

Asked if she actually wears her daily crown throughout the day's activities, Mrs. Nielsen says emphatically yes. The kids keep popping in the office to check on the condition of the flowers!

(Wonder how she keeps them balanced on her head all day?)

We've told you about the old car before, but here comes another one about our mechanical friend of 15 long years. Seems that our Better Half, driving some youngsters home, used the old bus the other day—only to discover that the children were fascinated by the idea of a running board!

Young GOP's To Hear Talk Tomorrow On
'Privileged Class'

R. H. French, former mid-western farmer, an active California Republican and one of the first sponsors of Dick Nixon, now vice-president, will speak on "America's Privileged Class" at tomorrow night's potluck supper-meeting of the Sierra Madre Young Republicans Club. The meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parks, 250 S. Mountain Trail.

The speaker, who will give members a briefing on the farm subsidy question, has served as chairman of the 12th Congressional District Republican Central Committee, chairman of the 53rd district assembly, and attended the last Republican National convention as a California delegate.

Administrator Points Way To Improved Street Appearance

The subject of Sierra Madre city streets arose again this week with reports from the office of City Administrator R. Merritt Baker that residents have been sweeping too much litter into curbs and gutters. The power sweeper employed by the city to clean the streets is not equipped to consume the piles of rubbish that result from the sweepings of leaves, also branches, and other forms of combustible rubbish, according to Baker.

"In many cities it is against the law to sweep dirt, or rubbish of any kind, into the streets," Baker reports. "The reason for this has been illustrated locally by the problem we face when too much is swept from yards or in front of offices. When the litter reaches a certain point, the power sweeper is forced to go around it."

Because the city sweeper is able to clean up gutter dust only, the city administrator has suggested that residents sweep yard rubbish into containers that can be placed for the regular collections of combustible rubbish made by the city through John Avedesian.

Boy Scouts of Mt. Wilson District
To Assemble Here For 'Camporee'

Boy Scouts in Sierra Madre's Mt. Wilson District will assemble at Sportsman's Park this Saturday at 12 noon to begin their "Camporee" that will last until 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

"Port of embarkation" will be at the corner of Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvd., from where the Scouts will hike with full packs to the park that is one block west of Eugene Field School and two blocks north.

More than 100 Scouts representing six troops are expected to participate in the event that will reach a Saturday night climax when members of Ta Tanka Lodge, Order of the Arrow, dance around the campfire in Indian dress before calling the names of those chosen to join their Scout fraternity composed of Scouts who have distinguished themselves in camping skills.

During the day, patrols of eight boys each will engage in competitions against time to give Scouts the chance to win points for merit badges. The winners will be announced

Sunday before the end of the "Camporee."

The event will not include Cubs or Explorer Scouts.

Legion Auxiliary Busy With Plans For Poppy Day Friday

At the American Legion Auxiliary meeting last week at Lella Embree's home in West Covina, members made final plans for Poppy Day which will be tomorrow and Saturday of this week.

Plans also were made for decorating veterans' graves at the Sierra Madre cemetery for Memorial Day. Members will meet the VFW Auxiliary at the cemetery at 5 p.m. on Friday, May 29, to place bouquets on the graves. An appeal is made for flowers for that day. These may be left on Friday at the VFW headquarters at 37 East Montecito Ave. or call Barbara Heasley to arrange to have flowers picked up.

Coordinating Council
Names New Officers

New officers of the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council elected recently are Walt Goodwin, president; Aaron Glaser, vice-president; Mrs. Alyce Herold, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Pamela Campion, recording secretary, and Mrs. Edith Dane, treasurer.

The annual coordinating council dinner sponsored by Kiwanis and Lions, will be Tuesday, June 2 at the Woman's Clubhouse. Mrs. Pamela Campion is in charge of reservations.

Local Lions Attend
Catalina Convention

Members of the Sierra Madre Lions Club attended the annual convention of Lions International, Districts Four D1 and Four D2, at Avalon, Catalina Island, last week from May 14 to 17. Accompanied by their wives, they were Vern Eppard, Percy Kortkamp, Carl Peterson, and Dr. Ralph Martin, who acted as a delegate from the local club.

International Director Albert Eagler and S. A. Dodge, first vice-president of Lions International, were among the featured speakers at the convention. Main social event was the Grand Ball, attended by an estimated 1500 persons.

The weekly meeting of the local Lions is tonight at the Woman's Club, beginning at 7:15 o'clock, with Sterling Ripple as the month's program chairman.

in Ecuador, South America, on native farms.

Formerly a student here at City School, now a graduate of the University of California at Davis, Simmons will act as a "Grass Roots Ambassador" to South America, sponsored in part by the Imperial County 4-H Club Council. The major portion of his expenses will be paid by himself.

For the past two years, Simmons has been employed by the University's Agricultural Extension service. Upon his return, he will attend 4-H and civic meetings throughout the country to relate his experiences in Ecuador.

Crowd Jams City Hall For Jim Roosevelt

James Roosevelt visited Sierra Madre Monday evening to greet the crowd of more than 140 people that awaited him at City Hall. Standing room was available only in the hallways.

Roosevelt, speaking without notes or text, praised President Eisenhower, but said he believed that a division existed within the Republican party; part of which, he claimed, wishes to continue the progressive measures of Roosevelt and Truman, with the other part imagining that it can take the nation "back to the days of William McKinley."

He asserted that Eisenhower generally favors the progressive attitude, that his main opposition is from Old Guard Republicans, and that the President cannot carry through in his program without the help of Democrats.

Roosevelt drew many rounds of applause, one of them being when he stated that the Truman foreign policy, in which Eisenhower and Dulles took leading parts, is still the basic policy of the

Kiwanis Hold Meeting
With Arcadia Members

The Kiwanis Tuesday noon meeting was held this week at Carpenter's for a sharing of luncheon and club talk with Arcadia Kiwanians.

Last week one of the guest speakers was Leland Marsh, an associate in the real estate business with Harry Lange, who spoke on the subject of soil conservation.

Also on the speaker's list was Mrs. Stanley Coutant, introduced by Phil Mitchell. Mrs. Coutant gave a brief outline of the progress of the Sierra Madre Symphony Orchestra, and told the club that more musicians would be welcomed.

The meeting ended with a report from Art Ritterrath concerning the Foothill Community Fair.

COMMUNITY BREAKFAST

Tickets to Sierra Madre's "Community Breakfast," June 13 still are being sold by young people between the ages of 10 to 15 who are competing in the "Junior Queen" contest. Although Francis Eakman, breakfast chairman, has made no announcement concerning progress of the contest, Susan Wilson, Linette Geane Simpson, Tessa Sue Johnson, and Susan Yamell have been named as the captains of the boy-and-girl ticket selling teams.

Singing and dancing numbers are related to the lives of composers and some of their better known works.

Instrumentalists are Nancy Willis on the accordion, and Lee Fish on trumpet.

Primary and upper grade students alternate yearly in presenting the all-school spring programs, and every student participates. Mrs. Smith organizes and directs, assisted by teachers of participating grades.

Chester Bass Injured
Seriously At Work

Chester W. Bass, 28 Hermosa, was seriously injured in an accident at the Buchanan Oldsmobile Co. in Pasadena Tuesday afternoon, according to sources here.

Details concerning the injured man, who is the Sunday School superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, were not available as late as yesterday afternoon, but reports from unidentified sources say that one of his legs was crushed.

Employees of the automobile company in Pasadena would make no comment on the grounds that it might complicate insurance claims.

Huntington Memorial Hospital, where Bass was taken, reports his condition as "fair."

Community Fair Sponsors
Still Searching For Location

Plans for the Foothill Community Fair, for which tickets already have been sold to benefit Sierra Madre's proposed new swimming pool, were still in an upset condition this week while promoters for the project were hurriedly seeking a location that could be signed, sealed, and delivered for the long announced dates of June 10 to 14.

While local organizations, and those of nearby communities, continued to develop queen contests, poster contests, and other competitions designed to attract attention for the climatic affair, officials of the Foothill Fair Committee and the Pan American Amusement Corp. were in the position of promoting a big event that was "all dressed up with no place to go."

The location at Foothill and Michillinda, advertised on tickets still in circulation, was blacked out last week when the city manager of Pasadena, William A. Allen, wrote a letter addressed to Calvin Lyon, Pan American Amusement Corporation associate, stating in part that "your request . . . was not favorably considered."

The site, which Swimming Pool Fund Promoter Ralph "Pappy" Welch, a local Lion, had thought was definitely donated by "the Murphy brothers of Hastings Ranch," was referred to in the letter:

"In addition to the fact that the city departments concerned with such activities have recommended denial of your request, our investigation also indicates that the consent of the property owner to use the

He attended City School here, John Marshall, and Pasadena City College.

His grandmother, Mrs. Delia Douglas, 71 W. Montecito, has been a resident of Sierra Madre for 12 years.

Nancy Carney Moves To First Place In June 'Fair' Contest

Nancy Carney, 17-year-old student at John Muir High School and candidate of the East Pasadena Lions Club, was moved into first place in the contest for Queen of the Foothill Community Fair, June 10-14.

At last count, however, the new leader had only a 10-point advantage over last week's forerunner, Lila Blumer, 16, representing Field District P-TA. Nancy stepped into the leadership after eliminating two other contestants nominated by the East Pasadena Lions Club.

Today's standing, with three weeks still remaining in the contest, is as follows:

Nancy Carney, East Pasadena Lions, 3990; Lila Blumer, Field District, P-TA, 3980; Lella Embree, VFW and Civic Club, 3820;

Also Florence Nielsen, Sierra Madre City School, 3560; Gretchen Conzelman, Sierra Madre Kiwanis, 3080; Marilyn Iffrig, Sierra Madre Lions, 2010, and Nan Petnick, Foothill Community Center, 1210.

The race still presents a "dark horse" candidate, with property for the purpose has not been obtained."

"Under the circumstances," City Manager McMillan concluded, "we find it necessary to inform you that your request has been denied."

Officials here later were told that the large tent proposed by the Community Fair was considered a fire hazard by the City of Pasadena.

Upon receipt of this startling last-minute news, Dr. Daniel D'Arcy, general chairman of the Foothill Community Fair, sought the aid of William Overly, co-owner of the Pan American Amusement Corporation, and others within Sierra Madre who had contributed to the impression that the location of the Community Fair was a foregone conclusion.

It was thought for awhile that an area at the Santa Anita race track might be available, until objections there were made on the grounds that an extensive carnival promotion might interfere with new track construction.

The most recent hope, according to D'Arcy, was a site belonging to Vard Wallace on Foothill west of Rosemead, not far from the movie drive-in across the street, but a study of the possibility of legal involvements brought a decision yesterday afternoon. The answer was no.

Because other locations are still under consideration, officials here have expressed the belief that a place eventually will be found to install the project.

In the meantime, ticket sales and other organizational activities will continue for the Community Fair that still looks for a place to pitch its tent.

Sierra Madrans Join Forces For Pool Fund

Individuals, artists, and P-TA groups are joining forces to share the job of raising funds at the Community Fair June 10-14 for the proposed new swimming pool.

Working together under the title of "The Domestic Science Group," they will display the products of hobbies, handicraft, needle work, and exhibits by various youth groups. Also on their list are home-made cakes, pies, candy, jams and jellies.

All products and efforts are to be donated, with proceeds going to the Swimming Pool Fund. Show cases for display, a cash register, and more volunteers are especially needed at this time.

Those who are interested in joining this promotion are asked to leave their names and addresses at Community Fair headquarters, City Hall, or contact Mrs. Arthur C. Bohart, 615 Edgeview Dr.

"SOUL AND BODY" SUBJECT FOR CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon "Soul and Body" in all Christian Science churches points out the need of understanding God as Soul.

This verse from II Corinthians (3:18) constitutes the Golden Text: "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass of glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

The "Spirit of the Lord" is illustrated in these words about Jesus from Luke's Gospel: "Then He called His 12 disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases . . . And the people, when they knew it, followed Him: and He received them, and spake unto them of the Kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing" (9:1, 11).

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation" (p. 210).

Bethany C. E. Group Fetes Lenox Palins

Members of the Christian Endeavor Society of Bethany Church had a surprise party at the home of Dolores Plesuk, 822 West Mariposa, in honor of their advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Lenox Palin, who are leaving for New Jersey following Mr. Palin's graduation from Fuller Theological seminary. The young people enjoyed an evening of volley ball and ping pong prior to a buffet dinner and a song fest. As an expression of their appreciation the group presented the Palins with a blanket at the close of the evening.

The professional acts were enticed by Lorne Pratt of Sierra Madre, Co-chairman of the project and also participating in the show are Robert Fleming and Al Bergh, presidents of the Men's and Clipper clubs, respectively.

NEEDED: A SPIRITUAL FOUNDATION

The fight for a wholesome community is a never-ending task. The citizenry cannot roll up its sleeves, go to work, conquer a problem, and then relax. Indeed not. When one task has been surmounted, another, even two or three, may loom ahead. We must constantly be striving forward, taking an interest in our community, and working to make it a safer place in which to live.

This means, most of all, that all citizens must take off the hindrances of the "selfish I" and look beyond their own immediate problems. They must consider themselves not as independent islands, but as a part of society as a whole—local and national. What happens in the neighboring city and state, though distant in miles, does affect you. The advance of science, to a large extent, has made us neighbors of the entire earth.

A spiritual underpinning of life—this is today the crying need of society . . . Men are committing acts which are wrong, bringing shame upon themselves, their families and their friends. These are men of little faith—men who trust their own abilities, not the guidance of a Supreme Being.

Twentieth-Century America needs men and women with God-inspired personalities, who will be soldiers of Christ, dedicated to raising the moral standards of society. They are individuals who have discarded the "selfish I" and are working, through the love of God, for a better world, one of righteousness and justice. (Excerpts from an article in "These Times" by FBI Director, John Edgar Hoover.)

Mt. Wilson Coffee Parlor, Sierra Madre, Cal.

MANY AN HONEST TEAR has been shed for the good old days whenever this picture, taken from a faded postcard belonging to Woodson Jones, has been shown to any of those Sierra Madreans who remember when the Pacific Electric cars unloaded hundreds of "whoopin', hollerin', city folk" each week-end at the end of the line here at Mt. Trail and Highland. Art Udell, 154 San Gabriel Court, who came to Sierra Madre in 1907, was the City Marshal in those days and Jones, now in real estate and insurance on the Square, was a newcomer from Memphis, Tenn., who first arrived here in 1912 to work for the bank. The old store, known as "The Mt. Wilson Coffee Parlor," was run by a Mrs. Sanger, whose first name no one seems to remember now. She often had to ask help from City Marshal Udell and Mayor C. W. Jones to keep the city people under control, before they began their adventurous hiking and burro trips up the mountain trails, sometimes in the middle of the night, to the old camps such as Fern Lodge, Orchard's—or even as far as the top of Mt. Wilson!

'The Return of Lanny Budd,' Provides History In Fiction

By ISABEL STRADLEY
"The Return of Lanny Budd," by Upton Sinclair:

Bernard Shaw once remarked — "When people ask me what has happened in my long lifetime, I do not refer them to the newspaper files and to the authorities, but to Upton Sinclair's novels."

Lanny Budd, hero of Mr. Sinclair's running history of the world since the first World War, has already disclosed more about our epoch than a thousand detailed news reports. In the previous 10 books of the series, Mr. Sinclair has given us the most complete and fruitful picture of that period than is ever likely to be done.

It is easy to make fun of Lanny Budd who knows everybody in the world worth knowing, who is always on the spot whenever anything of importance is happening. But Mr. Sinclair knows how to tell a story, and each one of the novels of this series is based on an enormous spread of research. It is almost as up-to-date as your morning newspaper, withal so full of suspense, that you are led on from one chapter to another breathless and absorbed.

The story opens in October, 1946, when Lanny is called from his radio station and his peace broadcasts to look into the attempts of the Russians to spread counterfeit money throughout Western Europe. From then on, neither Lanny nor the reader has a dull moment!

He becomes more and more involved in the series of events that bring on and intensify the cold war. The trail of his mission is long and dangerous, and finally results in Lanny being kidnapped and subjected to torture and interrogation.

When you realize this novel opens in the year 1946—seven years ago, you are appalled at the pattern taking shape before your eyes. You are a spectator of vividly authentic history, at the growth of the Russian menace after all hostilities have ceased! Mr. Sinclair's conclusion is more than thought provoking. . . . you can never convert this cold-war enemy; you can never make the slightest impression upon him. But always you must have in mind the little people, the humble ones who suffer and die by the millions under his depots, who hear only his propaganda . . . you must find ways to reach them with the truth and help them to understand it . . .

Other new books now at the library are non-fiction: "With a Quiet Heart," Le Gallienne; "Prince of Players," Ruggles; "Hostage to Fortune," O'Connor; "Old California Houses," Parsons; "God's Wayfarer," Gorainoff; "Private Papers," Vandebberg; "Tennis Techniques," Mace;

"Crime in Modern Society," Elliott; "Casserole Cookbook," Robertson; "23 Boats You Can Build"; "Basic Guide to Lettering," Buckley; "The Amazing Mr. Doolittle," Reynolds; "The World and the West," Toynbee; "The Coronation Book," Wibberley; Fiction—"In the Wet," Shute; "Worlds of Tomorrow," Derleth; "Glorification of Al Toolum," Arthur; "Landfall," Hull; "The High and the Mighty," Gann; "The Seventh Trumpet," Julian; "Disguises of Love," Macaulay; "Corpus of Joe Bailey," Hall; "Battle Cry," Uris; "Good Morning Young Lady," Kennelly.

Dear Sir:

I would like to congratulate the folks behind the recent School Bond Drive for their outstanding success.

It showed careful planning and coordination of effort and lots of hard work. Only in this way can important projects like this be realized and fully appreciated by our townfolk and the committee's long hours be justified.

Congratulations again.

W. D. Thurbers Greet First Granddaughter; Have Five Grandsons

A daughter, Lindsay Crawford, was born Monday in Huntington Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Thurber, 400 Sycamore Glen, Pasadena, formerly of Sierra Madre. The baby girl, who weighed seven and a half pounds at birth, is the first granddaughter of Col. and Mrs. Walter D. Thurber, 480 Manzanita. They have five grandsons.

Col. Thurber is able to be out again after a back ailment and injuries suffered in a fall caused him to be hospitalized for some weeks and bedridden at his home until recently.

them, it was something new! Biggest reaction, however, came when a 9-year-old girl in the front seat looked disdainfully at the gear stick rising from the floor, and asked: "What is this?"

On receiving an explanation, she still wasn't convinced. "Whatever it is," she said, "I'd have it REMOVED!"

Saw an ad that gave us a chuckle the other day, when it promoted well tailored, tight fitting britches.

"Blue jeans," it read, "for well-reared people."

PASADENA SCHOOL BOARD—JUNE 5

The progress of the Pasadena public school system has been stalemated too long by discussions among the members of the School Board. As individuals, they are fine, public-spirited citizens; but they have failed to function as a team dedicated to solving, objectively and efficiently, the vital issues affecting our children's education. It's time we had a Board composed of persons accustomed to working for the public, in responsible positions, in harmony and for the sake of GETTING THINGS DONE. Let's make a fresh start with three men who have not been involved in past controversies—VOTE FOR BONE—NICHOLAS—YOUNG . . . June 5!

Gas spreads its heat evenly FOR PERFECT FRYING

Among the many makes of automatic gas ranges on display is this beautiful new WESTERN-HOLLY
Others you'll see include Caloric, Gaffers & Sattler, Hardwick, Magic Chef, Maytag, O'Keefe & Merritt, Roper, Tappan, Universal, Wedgewood.

GAS isn't fussy about the shape of the pans you use. It automatically tailors its heat to any shape . . . spreads evenly under the entire bottom of each utensil. You have no hot spots, no cool spots. Each egg or each pancake on your griddle or skillet cooks at identical speed.

The clean blue visibility of gas is another exclusive advantage. You can always see just how much heat you have . . . can adjust it instantly. You get instant response, too, even when you turn gas off. There's no lingering heat to cause boil-overs or scorching.

Visit any dealer or your Gas Company today. See how much less the new automatic gas ranges cost to buy and operate.

SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY

Look what you can have in the NEW Automatic GAS RANGES

HANDY UTILITY SHELVES. Many makes and models come with fold-away shelves that provide extra work surface. Perfect for plates, serving spoons, forks, other utensils.

AUTOMATIC COOKING CLOCK. Clock control makes baking and roasting automatic . . . turns your oven on and off at times you set. Also separate timer for other cooking operations.

EASY BROILER ADJUSTER. Several makes and models have clever devices that enable you to raise and lower broiler without removing the broiler tray from the range.

GRIDDLE SPATTER SHIELD. This shield surrounds the griddle and prevents grease from splattering over range top. Folds down as griddle cover when not in use.

EXPANDABLE OVENS. Large gas ovens become even larger on some models. Rack supports remove easily to permit you to roast a really huge turkey or a small pig.

Mrs. Wright, Mabel Schadt Back From Mediterranean Cruise

Mrs. Emma Wright and Miss Mabel E. Schadt, 205 N. Baldwin, returned to Sierra Madre a week ago after a two-month Mediterranean cruise which took them to 18 countries, following which they visited with friends and relatives in the mid-West on their return trip after landing in New York in mid-April.

Mrs. Wright and Miss Schadt were passengers aboard the Norwegian-American liner, the S. S. Oslofjord, sailing from New York City Feb. 11. Highpoints of their trip included visits to two of Farouk's fabulous palaces, one in Alexandria, another in Cairo, Egypt. They met General Naguib, premier, who has replaced the deposed Farouk as ruler of Egypt.

They visited Yugoslavia during the time Tito was conferring with Winston Churchill and found it a storybook country with walled cities, drawbridges, and much else just as it was in the 16th century and earlier. Their tour also took them to Haifa, Israel, and many other countries.

SAID MRS. CARL S. REES, 621 E. Sierra Madre, when asked if she received many calls: "Yes, indeed; very satisfied with results."

MARY MADELEINE DOYEN, ROBERT P. ARCE WED IN PASADENA; ON HONEYMOON

Miss Mary Madeleine Doyen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Doyen, 605 W. Orange Grove, became the bride of Robert P. Arce of Los Angeles in a nuptial mass celebrated Saturday morning in the Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pasadena.

The bride, who was gowned in nylon tulle over shimmering satin and was attended by her sister, Sally, and three of her close friends, is honeymooning now with her new husband at a Bear Mountain lodge. The couple will return during the weekend and soon will move into the home they have built in the Granada Hills section of San Fernando Valley.

Carries Cascade Bouquet

The white wedding dress was fashioned in a ballerina length with a bodice and long sleeves of rose patterned lace. The shoulder-length veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls joined in front in a heart design. The bride's cascade bouquet was of white carnations and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Sally Doyen, also wore a ballerina gown, hers of lavender tulle and taffeta. With it she carried a bouquet of exactly matching, tinted carnations and wore a band of pleated tulle caught with small flowers as a head covering.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns in delectable pastel shades and head dresses similar to the maid of honor's. Miss Jane Nash of Monrovia wore coral and carried matching carnations. Miss Carol Fleckenstein and Miss Ida Fernandez were dressed in pale yellow and aquamarine blue, respectively, and their bouquets also matched their dresses.

Miss Nash was a schoolmate of the bride at Monrovia High School and Miss Fleckenstein attended St. Vincent's with the former Miss Doyen. The sanctuary, altar and front pews of the church were decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and stock.

Here From Tucson
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Doyen wore an afternoon dress of toast lace with a pink hat and accessories and a corsage of rose pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Pete V. Arce, here with Mr. Arce from Tucson, Ariz., wore a dress of navy lace and a corsage of pink carnations.

Serving as best man was Frank Buchanan of Los Angeles.

Following the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Timothy Crean, the bridal party and approximately 75 guests went on to the Doyen home for the reception held in the patio.

The table from which refreshments were served had as a centerpiece a fanned arrangement of white flowers and greens.

The bridegroom, who attended schools in Arizona, is a Los Angeles city fireman stationed in Hollywood. His bride was graduated from Monrovia High School, having previously attended St. Vincent's School and St. Mary's Academy in Los Angeles. She is employed in Los Angeles at present.

Mrs. Thompson Among Union Veteran Widows Honored at Convention
Mrs. Margaret Thompson, 132 S. Hermosa, returned recently from Long Beach where she attended the annual departmental convention May 3-6 of the Grand Army of the Republic "family" which includes the five affiliated orders.

Mrs. Thompson, formerly special aide to the late Stanton post of the department of California and Nevada, attended the convention as a member of the Women's Relief Corps and the Daughters of Union Veterans.

Also a widow of a Union veteran, Mrs. Thompson was one of 11 widows seated on the speakers' platform for the closing ceremonies. She has been asked to work with the veterans' widows much as she did with the veterans themselves before as aide to the post. She will correspond with the women and send them remembrances on their birthdays and at Christmas.

Mrs. McWade Feted At Farewell Party
Mrs. Herbert Hardin and Mrs. Dixie E. Tiller were co-hostesses Wednesday, May 6, at a small tea in Mrs. Tiller's home, 125 N. Sunnyside, as a send-off gesture to Mrs. Charles Lee McWade who left several days later for a six-week visit in the East.

Mrs. McWade was given a gift by those attending who included Mrs. Arthur Raphael, Mrs. John Conzelman, Mrs. Randolph Parker, Mrs. Mary Thayer, Mrs. R. M. Thayer Jr., and Mrs. Robert McWade.

Property Owners Board Hold Variance Meet

Members of the board of the Hastings Ranch Property Association met at the home of Robert Meserve, president of the organization, 3760 Hampton Rd., last week to discuss Consolidated Engineering's recent request for a variance on 8 acres of property north of their present building on Sierra Madre Villa.

On the basis of a vote taken at the meeting, it was agreed that the association would continue to oppose any use of the property on Sierra Madre Villa for other than it was originally zoned (for multiple-dwellings).

The matter of the variance request will be discussed further at the general meeting of residents of the area to be held on May 25, in Field School Cafeteria at 8:00. All residents of Hastings Ranch and the Sierra Madre Villa district are cordially invited.

Another protest voiced at the meeting at Mr. Meserve's home was that of the proposed establishment of an aluminum foundry and machine shop just outside the city limits on the south side of Foothill at Sierra Madre Villa. The applicants, V. B. and Mabel Wallace made their plea before the County Regional Planning Commission last week. However, the city plans to offer a protest on the basis that the proposal represents a potential nuisance and smog source when the Wallace's application is brought to the Regional Planning Commission's next meeting. A letter was immediately drafted by board members of the Hastings Ranch organization to the commission, backing up the protest being made by the city.

RANCH COTTON BALL ATTENDED BY MORE THAN FOUR HUNDRED; MANY PRE-PARTIES

Dancing to the lilting strains of a 5-piece orchestra, made up of musicians from the RKO Studios, approximately 250 couples enjoyed the gaiety of the first annual ball sponsored by the Hastings Ranch Nursery School. In keeping with the theme of the gala occasion, the "Cotton Ball," which was held Friday night at the Pasadena Athletic Club, the fairer sex were dressed in the popular patio cottons, colorful piques, linens, and the season's stylish denims, resplendent in rhinestone and glittering decorations.

There were pre-dance parties everywhere as couples gathered in ranch homes before the ball. Among the many who entertained in their homes were:

Howell Family Wins Top Swimming Honors

In the Junior Championship Competition on May 8 and 9 at the Pasadena Athletic Club, the Bud Howell family, 460 Pembroke Drive, walked away with highest honors of the swimming meet.

In the 12-year-old contest for girls, Malinda won the award; in that for 10-year-old girls, Carolyn took highest place; and in the 6-year-old boys' group, Bruce walked away with the honors.

The family gives credit to the marvelous instruction of Mr. Bud Lyndon, swimming coach at the Pasadena Athletic Club. In praising his work with the children, Mrs. Howell also mentioned that Mr. Lyndon has very kindly agreed to give a demonstration in artificial respiration tonight, May 21, in the Kindergarten room of Field School. Owners of pools in the ranch will be particularly interested, however, as the technique is something with which all adults and teen-agers should be familiar. The public is cordially invited.

Blue Birds Of Field Announce Sale Results

In the recent Peanut Sale, the Blue Bird troop of fourteen 3rd-grade girls at Field School sold fifteen and one-third cases of Circus Peanuts. The amount of $148 was collected by the girls.

Many of the girls with their parents have been visiting the new Camp Fire Lodge at Camp Chiquita, part of the cost of which was paid for out of the profits from this sale. They all report that the lodge, located at the end of Fair Oaks Ave. in Pasadena, is a beautiful building far exceeding anyone's expectations and far more expensive in architectural design and materials used than the contractor's price to the San Gabriel Valley Camp Fire Girls. An amount of $8,000 was contributed last year by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ladd Gifford toward the construction of the building—three-quarters of the total cost of the lodge.

Bobbie Cushman Has Fifth Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Cushman, 1140 Medford Rd., played host to a group of children when their son, Bobbie, celebrated his fifth birthday. The Merry-Go-Round birthday cake was the center of attraction and each child had a fancy cap and favors to add to his fun. Those attending were Bobbie's sister, Carol, Linda and Christine Ruiz, Nancy, Kathy, and Michael Doyle, Dickie Millard, Richard and Glen Pritchett, Judy and Susan Clark, Darryl Ingersoll and Johnny Savolian.

Comments On Rabies Control

ROY O. GILBERT, M.D.
Los Angeles County
Health Officer

Rabies is one of the oldest and most deadly diseases known. It cannot be cured after it has developed, and it is always fatal. However, it can be prevented.

All warm-blooded animals are susceptible to rabies. A bite from an infected animal spreads the disease through the injection of saliva which contains the rabies virus. This virus travels through the nerve trunks to the spinal cord and the brain causing paralysis and death. The prompt treatment by a physician of a wound from the bite of an infected animal, together with injections of anti-rabies vaccine (Pasteur treatment), is the approved procedure for prevention of human rabies.

The average incubation period of rabies in humans is 40 to 60 days, although it can vary anywhere from 10 days to a year or more. Wounds from bites on the face and neck are apt to produce symptoms more rapidly.

An animal which has bitten
a person should not be killed.
Instead it should be quarantined and observed for two weeks by health department officials. If the animal is still alive and well after two weeks, there is practically no danger of rabies. If the animal develops rabies, Pasteur treatment is indicated for the person who was bitten.

Bites from infected dogs account for 90 per cent of human cases in the United States, and cats, cows, horses, hogs, sheep and various wildlife cause the remainder.

There are two types of the disease in dogs and other animals. One is called "furious" rabies, the other "dumb" rabies.
A dog with furious rabies is at first restless, nervous, and sullen. As the disease progresses the dog snarls viciously, barks and growls at imaginary objects, and may wander far from home, biting as it goes, until it finally drops from paralysis or exhaustion.

Twenty per cent of rabies in dogs is the "dumb" type, which is more difficult to recognize and which is actually more virulent than furious rabies.
Symptoms of restlessness and irritability are usually absent, and paralysis soon develops in the lower jaw. The dog appears as though he has a bone stuck in his throat. Death occurs within two or three days of the onset of the disease.

Rabies has not developed into any particular problem in County health department jurisdiction so far this year. Four cases of rabid dogs have occurred since January 1. East Los Angeles and San Gabriel have accounted for one each and El Monte, two cases. As usual, the disease has occurred in areas near the Los Angeles River bed, which gives rise to the supposition that the disease is spread to dogs by small wildlife. Communities adjacent to the river bed should be particularly alert to the possibility of rabies.

Control of rabies in the dog population depends on two things. First, owners should have their dogs vaccinated annually. A new "one shot" vaccine which is free of any paralytic reaction has made such vaccination a safe and simple procedure. Second, communities should arrange for compulsory impounding of all stray dogs and for the enforcement of their licensing and leashing ordinances.

Students Engaged In 'Fair' Poster Contest

A poster contest is now in progress for students of Ascension Day School, Don Benito, Eugene Field, St. Rita, and Sierra Madre City School in which ribbon winners will have their work displayed in the Domestic Science booth at the Foothill Community Fair June 10-14.

Mrs. Arthur Bohart, chairman of the Domestic Science group, says that officials in the contest also hope to receive entries from seventh and eighth grade students at Wilson Junior High School. A committee composed of artists in the vicinity, not yet named, will act as judges in selecting first, second, and third prize winners from each grade.

Youth groups, such as the Boy and Girl Scout organizations and their affiliates, will have a contest of their own in which winners will display their handicraft projects at the Fair.

LOCAL DENTIST, ENROUTE TO EUROPE, DOES TOURIST JOB ON NEW YORK CITY

Editor's Note: Dr. J. Stadden Miller, Sierra Madre dentist, and Mrs. Miller spent some time last month in New York City and write interestingly, below, of their impressions of the Eastern city. They sampled the subway, saw the Statue of Liberty, and like most travelers, found the tipping situation "terrific". The Millers sailed April 25 from Quebec, Canada, for six weeks in European countries.

New York City
April 17, 1953

Hi—

This town is simply fabulous—Arabian nights sort of thing—to the eye, anyway. We gawked as much as any jay from the country—as well we may be. Downtown movies $1.80 and a 5-cent cup of coffee right across the street. Bond Clothes sign is a block long, on top of their building, with a statue three stories high on each end, lots of fluorescent gingerbread in between, and a real honest to goodness waterfall three stories high as a back drop—so help me!

Ad for one of the movies was plastered across the entire front of another building—eight stories high! One impressed soul was leaning against the wall photographing the Kleenex advertised sign across the street with his movie camera—would go the same if I had one—no one would believe it otherwise. Five and ten opens at 9:45 a.m., as do all the other shops around Times Square.

Every 5th auto is private—the fourth, a bus or truck and the other three, taxis. As a commentary on the hack-driver's courtesy—if you hail one, they stop right there, regardless of three blocks of traffic lined up behind, and let you in. Or maybe this belongs in the "times are tough everywhere" department. On the other hand, our driver turned off the meter after circling twice looking for this hotel—the marquee was down for some reason, and we missed it the first time around.

And thank heaven for radio beams! Arriving, our plane came down through 7000 ft. of soup to see the runway at Newark so close you could spit up to the plane from it. Everyone else appeared nonchalant—we tried to.

Concert Sold Out

Ask Margaret about Bonwit Tellers. She roamed around one half hour while I went up to Carnegie Hall for tickets to the Benny Goodman Jazz Concert tomorrow night. Silly boy! Sold out, of course. Or see your nearest scalper. Have tickets for some good shows, though. You get a ride most around the Island up 5th Ave. and Riverside Drive for 10c each way—N.Y. Times for a nickel, and a double in this middle class hotel for $11.50 per night—although we are a half block off Park Ave. and three blocks or so from Rockefeller Center.

Wandered by mistake into the unpretentious-looking (on the outside) dining room of some hotel on 56th—turned out to be way out in left field for us—$7.50 for their "tourist" class lunch! But the head waiter was very helpful and told us where and how to do in Paris—he and his wife go over every two years for a vacation. We're in the wrong business. Hat check girl told us where to go to eat at a reasonable tariff (after her boss had passed by)—just around the corner on Lexington Ave.—automats and filet mignon dinner complete, $1.79. Now you're talking. Meantime, we supped on a can of peanuts—

"Should Have U. S. Guide"

Just invested $2.75 in "The Poor Man's Guide to Europe." They should print one for the U. S. Never travel with more than a briefcase—it ain't the original cost of luggage that kills you off—it's the you-know-what. Plant to baggage-room, baggage-room to taxi, taxi to doorman to bellboy to elevator operator—brother!

Subwayed down to Wall St. for lunch at the Transportation Club with a friend, overlooking the Hudson river. Didn't see any BIG boats going out, but the cocktails were good enough that we didn't feel particularly bad about it. Got on at 51st. We had hardly sat down before we were at 42nd where you change to the Wall St. express. Put one of those in from Sierra Madre to 7th and B'way, and you wouldn't have time to turn to the funnies before getting off.

Wall St. friend told us that anyone who lives here in the city has bats in his belfry, that Wall St. has more stuffed shirts per square foot than any other spot in the country, including Washington, D. C. We saw a goody number of them promenading their dogs down Park Ave. and 5th Ave. Amusing, to us, at least—as was the open hansom with top-hatted driver in the middle of traffic at Times Sq. at 10 p.m. on a cold night—three silly girls in the back seat—but what a story they will have to tell the folks back home.

Veteran Celebrates Return Home With Kin On Mt. Wilson Climb

Corporal John L. Osborn, 165 W. Grandview, celebrated his recent return from two years in the Pacific by taking his nephew and niece, 8-year-old Erich and 6-year-old Rosemarie, children of Mr. and Mrs. Erich E. Wittig at the same address, on a hike to the top of Mt. Wilson last Saturday.

Leaving their home at 9:30 in the morning, the threesome telephoned the children's grandmother, Mrs. Clarence B. Osborn, also of the home address, from the summit at 4:30 o'clock that afternoon to make arrangements for the family to drive home that evening.

Osborn served in the Pacific with the 29th Army Engineers.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Picturing children and grown-ups together is a good idea from many points of view—one of the best of which is that it often helps you get especially good pictures of the adults because they are absorbed in the child.

"... If You Aren't Afraid I'll Break Your Camera"

THE words I used to title today's column represent my pet peeve in picture taking.

I'm sure that everyone of you, no matter how infrequently you may use your camera, has come across people who, when you ask them to pose for you, invariably manage to look coy and say, "Well, all right, if you aren't afraid I'll break your camera." On such occasions, I'll have to admit that I'm tempted to break the camera, quite literally, by throwing it at them!

And I'm always surprised to find that people who take pictures are just as guilty of this type of behavior as anyone else. We, of all people, ought to know better.

However, I suppose this reluctance on the part of some of our subjects is actually a challenge to our own picture taking abilities. It is up to us to overcome that disadvantage and not have it show up in the picture.

Some people are actually quite shy—and can't help freezing up when confronted with a camera.

And even among those who aren't shy, there are many who seem to feel that there's only one way to pose for a picture—and that's standing at attention and looking straight into the camera much as though they were facing a firing squad.

Pictures made with a subject like that just aren't any fun. They only present a record of how he looked when having his picture taken. So, let's look at ways by which we can win and influence such people into being good camera subjects.

Give the subject something to do. That's a tried and true rule. Find a center for his attention that is sufficiently interesting to take his mind off the camera. In selecting such an activity, let appropriateness be your guide. Make the pose fit both the subject and the situation. That makes for naturalness in your snapshot and you start off with the odds in your favor.

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand REPORTS THE WASHINGTON NEWS

The GOLD STANDARD BILL which I introduced has met with considerable press and mail approval. As explained in several interviews, adoption of the Gold Standard is not a panacea for all our ills, nor will it, unassisted, stop inflation. However, it is absolutely essential, together with the other three parts of inflation control, reduction of Federal expenditures and waste, a sound tax policy, and a sound credit policy.

No peace prosperity can possibly be established without control of the inflation nor without a sound monetary policy. Adoption of the gold standard should do as it has done many times in the history of the world, stimulate sound prosperity by returning confidence in the fixed value of the dollar.

Parcel 2: That portion of Lot A of Tract No. 6962, in the City of Sierra Madre, as per map recorded in Book 145, Pages 84 and 85 of Maps, in the office of the County Recorder of said County, described as follows:

I dictated a thought on POLITICAL STRATEGY in a news release, but cut it out as "Too Political". To you people, however, most of whom I know personally, I can talk frankly because I think you would like to know what we are up against in trying to put through some of the needed corrective measures. In most such measures about 80% of the Republicans and between 100 and 150 good Democrats are working together with the President.

These good Democrats, largely from the South, believe in individual enterprise, lowering taxes, balancing the budget and protecting the freedom of the individual as well as the return to basic Constitutional Government. Generally we and the Administration are working as one big team despite the left-slanted news releases what you may hear through out of Washington.

PERSONAL NOTE: Many of you know our able and attractive Secretary Mary Hornbeck. She's now Secretary of the California State Society here. It's a big job, and an honor—a real honor.

Mrs. Hiestand has at times chided me about my referring to her as "Mrs. Eck". This, of course, was to people who did not know her as Berenice and yet who knew me only by my nickname. Well, it now has the approval of the Chief Executive. In showing us around the White House, he referred to Mrs. Eisenhower as "Mrs. Ike". So now I feel better about it.

by serviceman Walter Strandberg, USN, through correspondence with Cub J. J. Sulch of Den 3.

Following an appreciation and farewell gift for departing

Cubmaster Leonard Lane, whose ability and interest have contributed greatly to the Pack's outstanding success, the grand finale to the meeting was a color-sound film provided by United Airlines.

In a candlelight ceremony assistant cubmaster Andy Anderson presented awards for achievement to the following Cubs: Leonard Lane, silver arrow; John Wallace, Wolf badge; Phillip Carroll, Wolf badge and three arrow points; Chuck Cole, Bobcat; Scott Spencer, Wolf badge; Harold Zellman, Bobcat.

A beautiful cake was provided by Mrs. Leonard Lane, Den 1.

Upon the heels of this successful meeting, the Den Mothers met at the home of Mrs. Howard Horn to plan activities for coming weeks.

Following the theme "Mother Nature's Backyard" Mr. and Mrs. Art Shipman took Den 3 to Kessingers' earthworm farm May 9 to learn of the importance of the unimpressive Mother Nature's scheme.

Planning for the May Pack meeting took place last Thursday at the Pack Committee meeting held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson, 1215 Rexford.

This year's jaunt to the silvery orb will feature a transfer from one of the municipal scientific center's imaginary rocket ships to another on an artificial satellite stationed 1,000 miles above the earth's surface, and a landing on the floor of the lunar crater Copernicus. "Space Station to the Moon" will be presented June 1 through Labor Day at 3, 8, and 9:15 p. m. daily and at 4:15 p. m. Saturdays and Sundays.

NO ONE LIKES TO TAKE MEDICINE

But everyone likes to feel well. Are you one of those who puts off until tomorrow what you should do today? For instance, visiting your doctor? He might prescribe for you one of the hormones, those chemical pace-makers which guide and maintain the body's living processes. If you are diabetic, he prescribes insulin. Cortisone may protect eyesight and ease the arthritic's pain. This store stocks Vitamins for nervous disorders, skin conditions, rickets, etc. Here you will find antibiotics like Penicillin which has helped cut the mortality rate for pneumonia. We stock antibiotics in many forms, tablets, capsules, ointments, powders, drops or injectables. Your doctor will tell you which one you need.

Last Saturday, entire Pack 3 visited the Audubon Society in El Monte.

The ideas committee, Jack Doherty and Mrs. Andy Anderson, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace to make plans for June, "Summertime Adventure."

Kill that fly! A female house fly lays up to 500 eggs in a season, and some lay as many as 2000. It's well to remember that a dead fly lays no eggs!

United States government.

"But if you think Dean Acheson was cruelly attacked," he said, "just wait and see what certain Republicans do to Dulles."

In the informal question-and-answer period that followed, Roosevelt was asked why Eisenhower didn't stop the Korean war. He said he believed the President was trying earnestly, "just as Truman did."

"Americans do not like containment," he stated, "but if it were not for our containment policy, all Europe and Asia might now be under Communist dictation, and we might be in a war against such vast hordes that every American boy over 14 would be called to service."

Henry Nuetzel Jailed 180 Days By County

Henry B. Nuetzel, 609 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., was sentenced in Pasadena municipal court Tuesday afternoon to 180 days in the Los Angeles county jail after he failed to appear in court the day before on drunk charges.

Nuetzel, who was jailed locally Monday night on similar charges, is a former airlines pilot who served here as city councilman from 1946 to 1950.

The high income level of this part of the country is reflected in the increased number of bigger automobiles purchased since the first of the year. An example of this is seen in the statement recently released by James J. Nance, above, newest leader in the auto industry, who heads Packard Motor Car company.

He told stockholders last week, "Three times as many Packards were bought in the first three months of the year as compared to last year. This amounted to approximately $125 million cars, marking an all time record for the company."

Part of this increase in the public's new interest in Packard is traceable to its new medium priced car, the Clipper, which has met with especially strong consumer interest in small towns. This new buying surge has been accompanied by an increase in the company's service facilities. Some 400 new service and sales garages have been appointed by the company in county seat towns across the nation.
